Constantinople, July 19.

Advice has been received from the Frontiers of Persia, that the Seraskier Achmet Bashaw, of Cars, was marched out of that City with the Army under his Command, and had posted, and retrenched himself, under the Cannon of the Place, in Expectation of the Enemy's Approach, who was then advanced, to the Number of 200,000 Men, as is expected to be near Cars, from whence it is but ten Days March; so that it is generally believed, that an Engagement must have ensued; and if so, we may, in very few Days, expect to hear the Issue.

Frankfort, August 31. On the 25th his Imperial Majesty caused to be transmitted by the Directory of Mentz, the publick Dictature of the Dyet of the Empire, the following Commissorial Decree; which, it is thought, will be the Basis of still more extraordinary Proceedings, in case that less Obedience should be paid thereto, than by his Imperial Majesty is expected. This Commissorial Decree is contained in the following Terms, videlicet;

On the Part of his Imperial Majesty of the Romans, Charles VII. our most gracious Sovereign; His Highness Prince Alexander Ferdinand de la Tour and Taxis, Sec. principal Imperial Commissary, ought not to conceal from the most Illustrious Counsellors, Ambassadors, and Envoys here present, of the Electors, Princes, and States of the Empire, the most ample Proof his Prussian Majesty has given of his German and Patriot-like Resolution, in regard to the obstinate Refusal of the Court of Vienna, to listen even to the most equitable Offers which have not only been proposed, but press'd upon her in the gentlest Manner, and yet with the warmest Solicitations; exposting thereby the Empire to utter Subversion, and that too under the most deplorable Circumstances, most magnanimously, to his unextinguishable Glory, and to the great Augmentation of the Merits of his most Serene House towards the German Nation, for advancing the Welfare of the whole Nation, for supporting the Prerogatives of its supreme Head, his Authority, and his Dignity, and for restoring that Tranquillity which is so much desir'd, has sent to his Imperial Majesty's Assistance a numerous Body of Troops, which have acted powerfully on his Behalf already.

As his Imperial Majesty has successively, during the whole Time of his glorious Imperial Reign, reiterated and confirmed, by his effective Conduct, his German and Paternal Declarations, That he aim'd at nothing more than to maintain his Rights and Prerogatives, principally, for the Sake of procuring universal Prosperity to the Empire, and to maintain its Constitution unharmed; and, consequently, is far enough from contributing, in any Thing, to its Disadvantage; or from being dispos'd, as has been most calumniously reported, to the Secularization of certain high Chapters; and, on the contrary, is entirely inclin'd to preserve and protect every One in his Possessions, Rights and Prerogatives, and would willingly make Satisfaction to all such as have any lawful Pretensions upon him; as he is oblig'd, without Dispute, by the Law of God, and his own solemn Engagements, to do, without calling in any Third Party to pay for him.

His Imperial Majesty is too much perswaded of the Love and Zeal of the Electors, Princes and States, for the general Prosperity of their dear Country of Germany; for his Majesty, as its supreme Head; for the Lustre and Authority of the Empire, as it is here represented; for the unalterable Support of the Laws of the Empire, and that indissoluble Bond which ought to be between the Supreme Head and its Members; as also, amongst themselves, for preserving the universal Tranquillity of the Empire, and of all well meaning Germans, not to have the fullest Confidence, that all the Electors, Princes and States, in general, and every one in particular, will most gloriously follow this magnanimous Example; and as his before-mentioned Royal Majesty has taken this vigorous Resolution with no other View than to fulfil his Obligations, and from a Patriot-like Care for the Prosperity of his Country, that, in like manner, they will be as careful, in respect to the Fidelity of their precious Engagements to his Imperial Majesty, that they will attach themselves indissolubly to their supreme Head, according to the Example set them by him, and other well-meaning Electors and Princes; and, in Effect, join with united Forces for the Deliverance and Security of the most precious System of the Empire, which has subsisted for so many Ages; and at the same time, will not refuse, as true Germans, to concur, in general, and in particular, to the Advancement and Preservation of the Prosperity of their dear Country, as is their indispensable Duty, in Quality of Electors, Princes and States.

Frankfort, August 22, 1744.

(L. S.) Alexander Prince of Tour and of Taxis.

Hague, September 4. We hear from the Empire, that M. Seckendorff and Noailles had both passed the Rhine with considerable Corps; and that some Palatine, Wirtemberg, and Hessian Troops, were in Motion to join them. The Prince of Holstein Beek, who had the Government of Bielefeld, being dead, their High Mightinesses have removed the Prince of Homburg from Bielefeld to Bielefeld; General Ginkle from Bergen Opzoom to Breda; General Vander Duyn from Venlo to Bergen Opzoom; and conferred Venlo upon the Prince of Hesse Philipsthal. We hear from Berlin, of the 29th of August, N. S. that they begin again there to talk of assembling an Army of 20 or 30,000 Men towards Magdebourg; and that the Regiments of Prince Leopold, D. S. and Ferdinand, which have been but very little Time there, have received Orders to march; but that it was not known, whether they were to join the King of Prussia, or to go to Magdebourg.

To which is prefixed the LIFE of the Author, newly compiled from Materials more ample and authentic than have yet been published. By Mr. OLDYS.

Sir WALTER RALEIGH's History of the World is a Work of so vast a Compass, such endless Variety, that no Genius, but one adventurous as his own, durst have undertaken that great Design. I do not apprehend any great Difficulty in collecting great and common-placing an Universal History from the whole Body of Historians; that is nothing but mechanic Labour. But to digest the several Authors in his Mind, to take in all their Majesty, Strength, and Beauty, to raise the Spirit of meaner Historians, and to equal all the Excellencies of the best, is Sir Walter's peculiar Praise. His Style is the most perfect, the happiest, and most beautiful, of the Age he wrote in; majestic, clear, and manly; and he appears every where so superior, rather than unequal to his Subject, that the Spirit of Rome and Athens seems to be breathed into his Work.

The Great Carminative.

A most famous Tincture for the Wind Cholick,

In what Part soever lodged; for at once taking, and in five Minute's Time, it perfectly cures the severest Gripings in the Guts, and immediately expels the Wind from the Stomach or Bowels (as it were) to a Miracle.

For all wandering Pains in any Part soever, which are in some Persons the Forerunners of a fixed Rheumatism, in others the Gout (mistaken many times under the Notion of Scorbutick Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its Fellow, having wrought Wonders in these Cases on great Numbers of People, who, before taking it, could neither sit, stand, nor lie at Ease; but were in intolerable Pain Night and Day, and taking less than half a Bottle, were absolutely freed from their present Pain, and by a short Continuance of the Course recovered to perfect Health again.

As for any Belchings or Hiccups, proceeding from Wind or, in short, in any Case of Wind, it may be depended on as the best, safest, most expeditious, and most sovereign Remedy ever yet known.

It is sold only by Mr. King, Printseller, in the Poultrey near the Royal Exchange, and by Mr. Martin, Bookseller, of the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland in Cranbourne-alley near Leicester-fields, at 3s. the Bottle.

By the said Mr. King and Mr. Martin is also sold for 3s. the Bottle, Retail.

The Princely beautifying Lotion.

Whose INIMITABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCENDENT EXCELLENCIES have gained it so much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to counterfeit it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmost Perfection, and is in the greatest Esteem amongst Ladies, for the first Quality. No Words can sufficiently express its Virtues; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which puts a false and unnatural Gloss on the Skin; but is a Remedy that, by its Use, really gives a Lustre to the most Beautiful, by clearing the fine Features of the Face, and is so safe, not having the least Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken inwardly and if smelted to, is really good against Vapours.

It infallibly kill Worms in the Face, takes away Freckles, Spots, Wrinkles, Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and infallibly cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming youthful Lustre and fine Air to the Features, to Admiration.

As for such Persons as are of a swarthy Complexion, or troubled with any disagreeable Redness, Roughness, Morphea, Heats, or the like, it is not to be parallel'd; for it immediately smooths, clears, plumps, nourishes, and whitenes the Skin to the last Degree, and makes those Persons who before look'd ragged and old, to look young, beautiful, and fair; and, short, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet known made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.

It will keep good twice Seven Years, well cork'd, is a Part of the World.

Good Allowance is given by the Dozen to sell again.
